

There is no other God.	God is too busy to care about human beings.	God is forever; He had no beginning and will have no end.	God is always completely fair. He always makes the right decision.
There are several gods for various groups of people.	God is not limited. He is bigger than the universe!	God is very old and will someday die.	God takes my side in every argument.
God is only a ghost; He isn't real.	God is only a powerful force, like electricity.	God is always very happy with how we live.	God usually does what is good.
God is not confined to a body as we are; He cannot be seen.	God is great, but knows, cares for and loves us individually.	God has no sin or wickedness of any kind. He is completely pure and perfect.	God always does what is good and right, and is pleased to provide for His people.
God has no beginning. He has always been; He is the forever "I AM."	God is always the same; we can depend on Him every day.	God will always give me anything I want, because He loves me.	God is wise; He made and understands everything and always knows what's best to do.
God was created by a stronger power long ago.	God is sometimes good and sometimes evil.	God wants what is best for every person.	God is sometimes surprised when I disobey Him.

God sometimes tricks me by not telling the truth.	God is all-present; He is everywhere at once, and with you all the time.	God knows about His creation and is active in caring for it.
God is always honest; you can totally trust His word. He never lies.	God is present only in His church.	God does not know or care what happens in this world.
God is all-powerful; He can do anything.	God made only the important parts of the universe.	God and the universe are the same; He is a part of creation.
God is only as strong as a powerful king.	God made everything (by starting with nothing).	God is separate from and greater than His creation, not a part of it.
God is still learning about this world.	God allows the universe to run on its own.	God has always been Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
God is all-knowing; He knows everything—past, present, and future. He knows all about you.	God keeps His creation operating properly.	We really worship three separate gods.
